

Study Abroad: Culinary Arts

Japan and Thailand

From its discovery in the late 16th century, Tokyo quickly grew into the world's most populous city within 100 years. Since then, Tokyo has steadily attracted people from all over Japan who brought their culinary traditions with them; therefore, Tokyo cuisine reflects the whole of Japan and, increasingly, the world. Thailand has an independent history going back more than seven centuries. It is a country of scenic diversity, ancient traditions, amazing food and modern urban excitement. Join MCC culinary faculty in Tokyo and Bangkok to blend cultural and food influences that create a unique and memorable study experience.
